Honorable Judge Lorenz,

My name is Stephanie Benson, I am writing this character witness letter for Mark E. Runnels whom is presently jailed in the federal W.R.D.F..

Mark is my fiancé, I have been with him for twenty years and love him very much. I moved to North Carolina November 2007 from San Diego after my grandmother died, Mark and I took care of my grandma and were both on the payroll with the in home support services (I.H.S.S.) in Chula Vista.

After that Mark temporarily work with the ship yard in San Diego as a Long

Shore-man. In December 2007 Mark joined me here in North Carolina as we had plans to get married, at that time we stayed with my parents Glenn and Gladys Penland at 1 Penland Place, Leicester, N. C. 28748.

Mark helped my dad with the land and his bathes while I helped my mom with the house and her bathes, Mark was also attending Enka Community College (828) 254-1921 here in Candler N.C. 28715 taking a quick course for a fork lift certificate as he had been offered work in the Ingles grocery store warehouse.

In February 2008 a female I knew in San Diego called me with news that the F.B.I. is looking for Mark in connection with Lee Walker. Mark and I quickly phoned the FBI in San Diego and were told on speaker phone about the warrant for Marks arrest we were told the FBI had video and audio of Mark selling drugs, so Mark turned himself in.

Now six months later investigators say that it was not Mark Runnels on video after all but, some other man whom has since been arrested and for the audio investigators says it's a conversation about madden football, but the FBI seems to think Marks talking in code.

As for myself I am writing educational story time children's books and my own line of greeting cards, I am connected with the small business administration for funding, I also do volunteer work with children at the communality Reid Center in the Livingston Housing Project in Asheville N.C. 28801.

Judge Lorenz, I am begging you to please look into this matter ASAP and release Mark Runnels so we may get on with our life's I can hardly breathe without him.

MARK & Stephanie's Address
